BE THE INSPIRATION

Amy Wachob has proudly served Goodwill Industries of Northwest Ohio since 1991. She began her journey working in the Goodwill stores. Through years of leadership responsibility within the various factions throughout the organization, Wachob was named President/CEO in November, 2016. Wachob received her BA from the University of Toledo, completed the Executive Development Program through Goodwill Industries International and has since become a Certified Executive within the Goodwill national network. She is committed to bringing attention and awareness of Goodwill's mission to the public and teaching supporters the meaning and mission of Goodwill beyond the stores. Wachob was born and raised in Toledo, Ohio and has two children; a son Jax who attends the University of Toledo studying Criminal Justice and a daughter Mackenzie who attends Northview High School.

Goodwill Industries of Northwest Ohio Inc. was incorporated March 1933 and serves 13 counties in the region with over 400 employees. Their mission is to help people with disabilities and disadvantages get jobs and link employers with job ready candidates.

Plans for 2019

- Expand job readiness programs by offering virtual classes
- Expand collaboration with nonprofit organizations to provide a holistic approach to service in the Job Connection Center
- Partner with area employers to provide employment cohorts
- Increase number of job fairs for area employers
- Open 14th store location on Secor Rd.
- Remodel store location on Reynolds Rd.
- Expand services both contractual and mission programs throughout region
