Michael Molnar, President of Amherst Rotary, shared their story of fellowship and giving in Honduras.

Honduras is a Central American country neighboring Guatemala, Nicaragua and El Salvador with a population of 9.2 million. It borders the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean.

They project they chose is the Jose Maria Gonzales Rosa School founded in 1961. The school in northern Honduras provides education for 411 children from 16 low income surrounding neighborhoods.

The school desperately needs a roof and Amherst Rotarians are not only raising funds but also working on the project themselves. Another trip is planned for 2020 and all Rotarians are invited to join.

Joe Coyle, Jim Moeller and Sharon Trabbic.

Past Presidents of Maumee Rotary gathered at Stone Oak County Club last Wednesday for a lovely meal and fellowship. Current President Trabbic shared some recent changes and these pillars of wisdom offered suggestions and great ideas.
