First Presbyterian Church of Maumee Chapel is a historic church at 200 E. Broadway in Maumee, Ohio. It is the oldest church building in Northwest Ohio. The Greek Revival church building was constructed in 1837 and added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1973.

On December 18 Maumee Rotary will celebrate the 200th anniversary of First Presbyterian Church, located at 200 East Broadway St. in Maumee. The meeting will be hosted by the church so that Rotarians may better understand and appreciate the significance of one of our community's longest standing organizations. The mission of First Pres Maumee is to be the church family engaging each person to enrich our community for God's glory through Jesus. Because the mission of the church and the mission of Maumee Rotary so closely align, both organizations have partnered in multiple ways to serve our community for several years. Not only will Rotarians hear a brief presentation about the church, past and present, but they will also be invited on a tour of the facility which will highlight a community art project and a historical timeline that have been installed as a part of the anniversary celebration.

Rev. Clint Tolbert, senior pastor of First Pres Maumee will be our primary speaker and guide during the meeting. Pastor Tolbert has served the Maumee congregation for more than 9 years. Prior to his time in Maumee, Pastor Tolbert served First Presbyterian Church in Greenfield, Ohio as well as engaging in ministry at Purdue University. Pastor Tolbert has been married to his wife Stacey for twenty years and they have four children, all of whom are students in the Maumee
